Cherry Tree Malpractice in Examinations Policy

Staff Malpractice Policy

Introduction

This policy sets out to define the procedures to be followed in the event of any dispute or allegation regarding staff malpractice in the assessment of internally marked qualifications and examinations invigilated by staff at the centre and marked externally.

Examples of Malpractice

Attempted or actual malpractice activity will not be tolerated. The following are examples of malpractice by staff with regards to portfolio-based qualifications. This list is not exhaustive:

- Tampering with candidates work prior to external quality assurance / moderation / verification.
- Assisting candidates with the production of work outside of the awarding body guidance.
- Fabricating assessment and/or internal quality assurance records or authentication statements.

The following are examples of malpractice by staff with regard to examinations:

- Assisting candidates with exam questions outside of the awarding body guidance.
- Allowing candidates to go to the toilet unsupervised, to talk, or to use a mobile phone.
- Tampering with scripts prior to external marking taking place.

Staff Malpractice Procedure

Investigations into allegations will be coordinated by the Headteacher who will ensure the initial investigation is carried out within ten working days. The person responsible for coordinating the investigation will depend on the qualification being investigated. The investigation will involve establishing the full facts and circumstances of any alleged malpractice. It should not be assumed that because an allegation has been made, it is true. Where appropriate, the staff member concerned, and any potential witnesses, will be interviewed and their version of events recorded on paper.

The member of staff will be:

- informed in writing of the allegation made against them.
- informed what evidence there is to support the allegation.
- informed of the possible consequences, should malpractice be proven.
- given the opportunity to consider their response to the allegations.
- given the opportunity to submit a written statement.
- given the opportunity to seek advice (as necessary) and to provide a supplementary statement (if required).
- informed of the applicable appeals procedure, should a decision be made against them.

- informed of the possibility that information relating to a serious case of malpractice will be shared with the relevant awarding body and may be shared with other awarding bodies, the regulators Ofqual, and/or professional bodies.

If work is submitted for quality assurance / moderation / verification or for marking which is not the candidate's own work, the awarding body may not be able to give that candidate a result.

Staff Malpractice Sanctions

Where a member of staff is found guilty of malpractice, Cherry Tree will regard this as misconduct as outlined in the Cherry Tree Staff Policy and Procedures and as such may impose the following sanctions:

- 1) Verbal Warning: Issue the member of staff with a verbal warning stating that if the offence is repeated within a set period, further sanctions will be applied.
- 2) Written warning: Issue the member of staff with a written warning stating that if the offence is repeated within a set period, further specified sanctions will be applied.
- 3) Training: Require the member of staff, as a condition of future involvement in both internal and external exams / assessments to undertake specific training or mentoring, within a particular period of time, including a review process at the end of the training.
- 4) Special conditions: Impose special conditions on the future involvement in assessments by the member of staff.
- 5) Suspension: Bar the member of staff in all involvement in the administration of assessments for a set period of time.
- 6) Dismissal: Should the degree of malpractice be deemed gross professional misconduct; the member of staff could face dismissal from their post.

Candidate Malpractice Policy

Introduction

This policy sets out to define the procedures to be followed in the event of any dispute or allegation regarding candidate malpractice in the assessment of internally marked qualifications and also regarding examinations marked externally.

Examples of Malpractice

Attempted or actual malpractice activity will not be tolerated. The following are examples of malpractice by candidates with regards to portfolio-based qualifications. This list is not exhaustive:

- Plagiarism: the copying and passing off as the candidate's own work, the whole or part of another person's work.
- Collusion: working collaboratively with other learners to produce work that is submitted as the candidates only.
- Failing to abide by the instructions of an assessor – This may refer to the use of resources which the candidate has been specifically told not to use.

- The alteration of any results document.

If a teacher suspects a candidate of malpractice, the candidate will be informed, and the allegations will be explained. The candidate will have the opportunity to give their side of the story before any final decision is made. If the candidate accepts that malpractice has occurred, they will be given the opportunity to repeat the assignment. If found guilty of malpractice following an investigation, the teacher may decide to re-mark / examine previous assignments, and these could also be rejected if similar concerns are identified.

The following are examples of malpractice by candidates with regards to examinations. This list is not exhaustive:

- Talking during an examination.
- Taking a mobile phone into an examination.
- Taking any item other than those accepted by the Awarding Body into the examination, such as a book or notes.
- Leaving the examination room without permission.
- Passing notes or papers to, or accepting notes or papers from, another candidate.

If a teacher suspects a candidate of malpractice during an examination, the candidate will be informed, and the allegations will be explained. The candidate will have the opportunity to give their side of the story before any final decision is made. If the candidate is found guilty of malpractice, the Awarding Body will be informed and the candidate's examination paper will be withdrawn. It is unlikely that the candidate will have the opportunity to repeat the examination.

This policy will be reviewed annually by the Headteacher
and or the Management Committee
